

Business English for Tourism

Description:

Level B2

You will join an existing group of Polish students that is why you'll have to see the FLC coordinator first. An informative meeting with the coordinator is planned in the second week of the semester, so please expect more information by email before the beginning of the academic year.

Requirements:

Ability to communicate in English at level B1 (intermediate - at least)

Regular attendance is required.