

General English C1

Description:

This course is meant to develop your General English communication skills at the advanced level.

You will join an existing group of Polish students that is why you'll have to see the FLC coordinator first.

An informative meeting with the coordinator is planned in the first week of the semester, so please expect more information before the beginning of the academic year.

Requirements:

Ability to communicate in English at level B2 (upper intermediate).

Please make sure that your English is good enough to join this class.
