

Polish Language Course B2

Description:

You are going to develop your ability to communicate in Polish language, learn more complicated language structures and write short texts. You will also practice your knowledge of Polish in academic environment and will have a chance to learn a lot about Poland, Polish culture and traditions.

Good ability to communicate in Polish language in various situations, ability to understand the news and discuss current affairs, read and understand texts in Polish as well as the ability to apply Polish grammar are necessary to attend the course.

Regular attendance and active participation are required.