

Survival Polish 1

Description:

You are going to learn basics of our beautiful language to be able to communicate in simple situations of everyday life, such as exchanging personal information, asking the way, doing the shopping, buying train/plane tickets, expressing health issues, etc. You'll also get familiar with some basic Polish grammar.

Regular attendance and active participation are required.