

Survival Polish 2

Description:

This is the continuation of Survival Polish 1 course, during which you are going to develop your ability to communicate in Polish language and learn more complicated language structures. You will also continue getting familiar with Polish grammar and find out about some elements of Polish culture and traditions.

Regular attendance and active participation are required.