8. Invoices for paid fees are generated upon request of participants within 3 months counted from the date of receipt of the payment crediting the bank account of the Białystok University of Technology.
9. Lack of payment of the fee by the established time limit will result in candidates being removed from the list of participants.

Chapter III. Rights and obligations of the participants of the Summer School

1. At the end of the Summer School participants will receive a certificate confirming their participation, which will include information about the number of ECTS points awarded according to the chosen course.
2. The participant is responsible for independently ensuring their safety and health, including the responsible management of long-term health conditions.
3. Participants are obliged to behave in a manner that does not endanger their own health and life or that of other participants.
4. Any damages incurred during the Summer School, including property damage, will be financially charged to the individuals responsible for causing them.

Chapter IV. Rules for Withdrawal from the Summer School

§ 4

1. In the event of the cancellation of participation in the Summer School, participants shall be obliged to submit a written statement of the reasons for the cancellation.
2. Cancellation by participants during their participation in the Summer School shall not give rise to a refund of the payment by the organiser.
3. In the event of withdrawal from the Summer School within 14 calendar days before its commencement, participants will bear the financial consequences. The organizer has the right to deduct all costs incurred in connection with preparing their participation, which may amount to up to 30% of the paid amount.

Chapter V. Final provisions

§ 5

1. The organiser will conduct an additional intake immediately after the main admission process until the number of places is exhausted.
2. The organiser reserves the right to organise the entire Summer School in a remote format if organisation in stationary form is not possible for pandemic reasons.
3. Any doubts arising from the application of these Rules and Regulations and matters not regulated by them shall be resolved individually by the Head of the Summer School. In exceptional justified situations, the Head of the Summer School may issue instructions and organisational guidelines to be followed by the participants.
4. These Regulations shall enter into force on the date of commencement of recruitment.
